The melancholy days that come regularly, the saddest in the year, have put in their appearance in Brooklyn a trifle early. They are sad days judged from the Brooklyn standpoint, because the New York team has been playing a long engagement. Yesterday the champions turned to and got even for the heating that Brooklyn handed out on Friday. Oscar Jones took his comfortable avoirdupois in to the pitching box and struck attitudes four innings, in the course of which me the New Yorks garnered nine hits, which in combination with other things were ble for seven runs. Jones then got a holiday, while Scanlon was introduced. proved a monumental success, allowing one hit. Although he was liberal with ses, the New Yorks found that the way that leads to seats of honor—on the bench—were difficult to attain by the four base route, and they scored no more runs. The Brookaftered about like the rain which rould not do, as the novelist says, and s was the limit of the radioactivity norium of the Brooklynites.

dissect the pitching of the Brooklynites, diagnosis of Jones soon was completed. Brooklynites, however, with a slight gover from their victory of the day re, began the rungetting. Hall, who been unable to make a hit before against of the New York pitchers, doubled after by was out, Dahlen to McGann. Lumley ed, naturally scoring Hall. Donlin tood that he could throw some by collections stiff drive on a line and whipping the plate in time to double Lumley. Le New Yorks got back in form in the nd inning, and took the lead by the gin of a run. Mertes singled, but Dahlen to Hall. Babb bungled a bounder from evlin, who was safe at the initial station, e Mertes, totlered home, with a run. A hevin, who was said at the initial station, while Mertes tottered home with a run. Strang bunted as neatly as if he were using a billiard cue, but Bowerman's three wallops at the air made things look bad. The tension was relieved when Wiltse singled. Devlin scored, but all was over when Browne flied out to Hall. In Brooklyn's half of the second, Rowerman had a gash cut in his forehead. erman had a gash cut in his forehead foul tip, but with commendable pluck k to the game. he brutality which is painful to record the to the game. The brutality which is painful to record broke loose in the fourth as mentioned before. Innocently enough Dahlen filed to Hall. How many of these cataclysms begin so innocently. Devlin earned a base, with his wallop, and went to third after Strang doubled. Jones didn't care, and the wallop he gave Bowerman in the midriff sent that injured hero to first free gratis. By accurate count the bases were full. As far were could reach there was no vacant place. Wittee hit to Batch, who preferred to make sure of one out, and so retired the lean New Yorker at Mitchell's stand. Meantime, Devilin soored a mild looking run. Browne produced a triple that fitted in well, and strang came in, followed as closely as possible by the bruised backstop, Bowerman. Donlin singled toward center, Browne coming in, Mike went up a station while Dobbs was messing up the ball. McGann's single scored Mike, and then—Scanlon took Jones's place. Mertes flied to Babb, and the page in history had been writ.

Brooklyn feebly tried to even things in the fifth. Babb doubled and came in on Mitchell's sacrifice. Ritter walked and Scanlon sacrificed him along. Singles in succession by Dobbs and Hall scored two russ. Malay's double and singles by Mitchell, and Ritter afterward brought home Malay with the last run for Brooklyn and of the game. The score:

ATLANTIC YACHTS RACE. Vivian II., Saetta and Trouble Win in Club

The Atlantic Yacht Club held its regatta for club classes yesterday afternoon on Gravesend Bay. Three races in all were sailed. The first, which was open to Class P and above, was for the Underwood cup. This is the second contest that has been held this year for the possession of the trophy. Yesterday's log was won by S. E. Vernon' Vivian II. Saetta, owned by George H. Church, on the second race, which was the first for Regatta.

the Havens-'05 cup, open to Class Q and below. The last contest, an impromptu affair for Class Q special, was won by W. A. Barslow's Trouble. A strong southerly wind sent the boats along in splendid style. The course steered was an innovation to the amateurs of the lower bay. For the larger craft it was from a marked boat anchored in front of the Atlantic Yacht Club to Craven's Shoal bell buoy, then to a bell buoy three-quarters of a mile due north of the West Bank light and then home.

The little fellows also sailed their first leg to Craven's Shoal bell buoy. There, however, they parted company with the larger boats and beat to buoy No. 11, about five-sixteenths of a mile east-northeast one-quarter east from Swinburne Island. From there they reached here.

Swindurne island. From there they reached home.

Several of the boats met with accidents. Nothing, however, of a serious nature happened. The Lizana carried away a bobstsy. The More Trouble lost the top to her forward hatchway, and the Mary lost her rudder. Cockatoo II., while leading the new Class Q boats, carried away her mainstay and had to drop out of the race. The principal game in the league series was played at Livingston, where the Staten lyn Wanderers. This resulted in a victory for the home team by a margin of 34 runs ion the first innings, although the Brooklyn men at their second attempt hit out in fine and passed the century mark before call of

Not a man reached double figures for Brooklyn in the first attempt, but G. Mac-pherson with 44, A. Gunn with 38 not out and H. Rushton with 10 all batted well on the second venture. The last named, with a record of 4 wickets for 20 runs, and W. visitors, while for Staten Island T. D. Killick with 6 for 18, and R. W.R. Powell, 3 for 13, did good work. L. E. G. Cook, R. E. Bonner and A. G. Laurie Just managed to get double figures. The totals: Brooklyn Wanderers, 3s and 109: Staten Island Team B, 68.

The Staten Island A team met with a serious reverse at the hands of the Kings County St. George eleven at Prospect Park, and in a low scoring contest suffered defeat by nine runs after an exciting finish. Batting first, the Islanders were unable to make any stand against the bowling of G. Barnes and were all disposed of for a total of 5s. E. H. E. Steinthal, F. A. W. Ireland and T. H. Allison scored 15, 11 and 11 not out respectively for the visitors, and C. H. Clarke and F. F. Kelly, with figures of 5 wickets for 39 and 4 for 24, did the best work with the ball. Barnes was the hero of the game, and his bowling record of 6 wickets for 20 runs was sensational. In addition he scored 27 with the bat and was helped materially at a critical period by J. P. Stuart, who added 16 not out. The totals: Staten Island Team A, 58; Kings County St. George, 67.

The Brooklyn Zingari met the Kings County 14 runs. The bowlers had all the advantage in this game also and for the victors C. A. Worm, with 5 wickets for 16 runs and A. S. Christy did splendidly. The best batters on the side were A. Brown, H. Glover and Christy, with scores of 20, 12 and 11 respectively. For Kings County E. B. Reece made top score with 27 and H. C. Smart added 12. N. Curtis came out as a bowler and achieved success. His figures were 7 for 25. The totals: Brooklyn Zingari, 70; Kings County, 56.

The New York Association championship match played at Elizabeth, N. J., between the Union County and Yonkers teams resulted in an easy victory for the former by 54 runs. This was due to the good bowling of E. F. Goddard, who cantured 7 wickets for 4 runs. with 6 for 18, and R. W. R. Powell, 3 for 13, did good work. L. E. G. Cook, R. E. Bonner

The New York Association championship match played at Elizabeth, N. J., between the Union County and Yonkers teams resulted in an easy victory for the former by 54 runs. This was due to the good bowling of E. F. Goddard, who captured 7 wickets for 4 runs, and D. A. Gibson, who took 3 for 7. In batting W. M. Drill scored 18, while for Yonkers S. A. Low took 2 wickets for 6 runs. The totals were: Union County C. C., 76; Yonkers C. C., 22.

A drawn game resulted in the meeting of the Manhattans and the Thistles. Some good hitting was done in this game, and A. Backus, 44, R. J. Danby, 33, F. A. Slade, 26, and W. Adam, 22, all batted in fine style. They were well backed up with the ball by A. Cleaver, with 5 wickets for 21 runs, and A. Smedley, with 2 for 13. For the Thistles W. T. Anderson, who scored 14, and W. S. Patmore, with 11 not out, were the chief contributors. The totals: Manhattan, 133 for 3 wickets: Thistles, 57 for 7 wickets.

The Manhattan B team, however, managed to beat the Thistle B team by 8 runs in another low scoring game at Prospect Park. For the victors J. J. P. Kelly and J. McGuffied did the best work at the bat, and C. Vickers batted finely and scored 12 not out when runs were badly needed. For the losers top score was made by J. Grieves, with 17, and F. A. Sargeant added 11. The totals: Thistles B team, 52; Manhattan B team, 60.

The Paterson B team journeyed to Prospect Park to play the West Indian B team and were defeated by 6 runs, with 2 wickets to spare. This was principally owing to the good batting of 0. Waithe, who carried his bat through the innings and scored 45 not out. T. Montouth was the only other man to get double figures. For Paterson A. G. Rainbow hit well for 30 and T. Grayson scored 13. The totals: Paterson B team, 68; West Indian B team, 67 for 8 wickets.

The West Indians J. Harney, with 13, was the top score and H. Alexander bowled well and bowled out four men at a cost of 23 runs. The totals: West Indians, 68; Paterson, 73, for 5 wickets.

GOSSIP OF WALL STREET.

H. V. Jones, who has been in the spring wheat country since barvesting began in the winter wheat States, does not anticipate a much larger spring wheat yield this season than last, when the crop was seriously damaged by rust. For the last fortnight he has been traveling through southern Minnesota and South Dakota. "I have not seen North bushels for that State, the total crop for the bushels, or 50,000,000 bushels less than of macaroni wheat, for which a production of fifteen to twenty million bushels is claimed, so that the net spring wheat crop will not be more than 160,000,000 bushels in the three States. The crop is late and little will be cut in July. It will take a favorable July to produce the crop as estimated. South Dakota is late, southwest Minnesota is very bad and the yield will be light. Some counties west of Minneapolis are good. The James River Valley promises the best in South

Mr. Jones's preliminary spring wheat figures show that he looks for a total wheat crop in this country this year fully 100,000,000 bushels under the figures indicated by the last Government report. The June percentages from Washington indicated 436,000,000 bushels of winter wheat, a gain of 111,000,000 bushels over last year, and 277,000,000 bushels of spring wheat, a gain of 50,000,000 bushels-giving a total crop of 713,000,000 bushels, as compared with 552,600,000 bushels last year. Mr. Jones has already estimated the winter wheat yield at from $40,000,000 to $70,000,000 bushels. Taking his preliminary spring wheat estimate of from 160,000,000 to 175,000,000 bushels, and allowing 70,000,000 bushels for seen that Mr. Jones is counting on a produc tion this year of from $70,000,000 to $15,000,000 bushels, or from 100,000,000 to 140,000,000 bushels less than indicated by the Govern-ment's figures. The Government nearly always overestimates the wheat crop in its early figures. Two years ago at this time under the Government, and last year he was 84,000,000 bushels under; but in both seasons the Government came down to the Jones unlikely to be the case again this season. In comparing the past two seasons' crops with those of several years ago the increase in population must be borne in mind. With a crop of 680,000,000 bushels last year the per capita production was only 6.71 bushels, as compared with a per capita production of 7.95 bushels in 1897, for example, when the crop was only $20,000,000 bushels. From the crop of 1897 we were able to spare for exseason's larger crop we could ship abroad only for the distribution of rights to Northern Pacific and Great Northern stockholders.

The earnings of the three Hill roads this last year have been so large that the stockholders are justified in anticipating returns from their investments in excess of the regular dividends. Great Northern has earned 18 per cent. on its stock and Northern Pacific 13 per cent., while Burlington has earned twice the amount of the charges on the joint 4s. Increases in the regular dividends
